

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1884.

For Attorney-General,
HON. DANIEL H. MCINTYRE,
Of Andraia.

For Congress from the 7th District,
HON. E. ROBINSON,
Of Erie.

Democratic City Ticket.

For Mayor,
RICHARD H. FOWLER.
For City Attorney,
JAMES G. TRIMBLE.
For Recorder,
B. F. TOMLINSON.
For Marshal,
JOSEPH MURRAY.

For Councilmen,
First Ward—R. CALLAWAY.
Second Ward—JOHN H. LANE.
Third Ward—J. J. WINSOFT.
Fourth Ward—GEO. LAPOURCE.
Fifth Ward—H. T. BAIRD.
Sixth Ward—A. R. RINGO.

The City Ticket.

The city democratic ticket nominated last Friday night, an account of which can be found on the first page of the LEDGER, is a good one and will be elected clear through without a skip. R. H. Fowler heads the ticket. The Republicans will make a strong effort to beat Fowler. They are flushed with their success last year, but this season it is different. Last year a great many were committed before the convention met, and others thought the convention did not come up according to party rules and usages. This season there is no excuse for any democrat not voting for the entire ticket. Fowler is an honest, straightforward democrat, one who takes an interest in the party and in the city. He has had a good deal of experience in the capacity of mayor and will do what he has done before—make Mexico a fine mayor. The Democratic party of Mexico is now united and will work shoulder to shoulder for the common good of the whole party. Candidates before the convention who were defeated will be found at the polls with their friends, working for every man on the ticket, in spite of snarling grannies who do nothing but talk and are never found at the polls. The Democratic party of Mexico was never before in a more healthy condition.

We hear it stated that there were 186 men who banded together after the dead beat book was issued, and that officers were elected, and that one of the resolutions was, never to vote for any man who had anything to do with getting up the book. In our opinion the number is greatly exaggerated, and in the second place most of these men are republicans and would have voted the opposite ticket. We trust this element does not control the politics of Mexico.

Beaumont for Sheriff.

Joe Beaumont, of this city, is a candidate for Sheriff of Audrain county. He was deputy under Glascock four years and has been under Woodward the same length of time. He understands all the details of the duties of the office thoroughly and would make a fine sheriff. He is a staunch Democrat and solid in every sense of the word.

The Republicans are hustling around to find good men for a "people's ticket." At the same time they say "this is no political fight." All right; just wait till the first day of April and then count your people's ticket vote, and we will tell you just how many voters there are in Mexico who have no claims on the democratic party.

No Doubt of It.

Whenever any report is circulated about Mexico the other papers and the public blame it on the LEDGER and LEXINGTON Bulletin. This is right. Every item of news, good or bad, concerning Mexico, or Audrain county, originates from the LEDGER office. There is no doubt about this, and we are proud of it.

Johnson for Circuit Clerk.

In this issue of the LEDGER will be found the announcement of Ben C. Johnson for Circuit Clerk. Ben is in every sense of the word fitted for the office. He is a deserving man, a genial gentleman and a thoroughbred Democrat. What more can the most exacting ask?

The Craighhead murder case.

The Craighhead murder case of Fulton is being quietly but vigorously worked up. A good clue is being followed and arrests will soon be made. It is thought that the parties who did the shooting live right in the vicinity of Fulton. They are being closely watched.

A Good Editor.

The Hercules, a dredge employed in the Panama Canal, slings 6,000 tons of mud daily. In our opinion, the Central Guard and Sturgeon Leader should each buy an "Hercules."

The new Democratic Central City Committee met last Monday night.

Geo. Robertson was elected chairman, B. F. Dobyns secretary and Wm. Stewart treasurer. This is a good committee and well organized.

The meeting of the two Republican conventions in St. Louis this week was a puzzle.

There can be no harmony. Filley is a dead duck. He is the best Republican politician in the state.

Many friends in this city of Rev. Murphy of Fort Worth, Texas, rejoice with him and his daughter in their triumph.

Mayor Botkin has just returned from a pleasant visit to Cincinnati and other eastern points.

THE MURPHY MATTER.

The Investigation Ended!

Miss Fannie Innocent.

THE "BEAUTY AND THE BEAST."

Condensed Report of Proceedings--Two Sides to All Sensations.

The "Beauty" Well Advertised All Over the World--Unanimous Verdict in Favor of the Murphys.

"BEAUTY."

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED TO MISS F. H. H. BY A NEWSPAPER FRIEND.

"Beauty," darling, will you meet me On the bright and shining shore?

"Beauty," dearest, will you kiss me See we part to meet no more?

Will you ever love another? Will you miss me when I'm gone?

Will we never be together? When our spirits both have flown?

Yes, I'll meet and love you ever While my spirit lives and holds.

And I'll never love another For my heart is made of gold.

I will cherish you forever As my richest, truest love;

Though our spirits death may sever, I will dream of you above.

In these arms, like alabaster, I will sleep your dying form.

And my pulses quicker faster As my heart is riven, torn.

And, upon your lips, now deathly, I will press a sweet good-bye.

And in heaven we'll all be weddies, In our home beyond the sky.

FIRST DAY.

FORT WORTH, TEX., March 5.—The all-absorbing topic of conversation for some weeks past to-day took shape in the investigation of the charges brought against Miss Fannie Murphy and her father, Rev. J. D. Murphy, by Geo. S. Eaton, a Galveston drummer. Large crowds were in attendance at all their sessions and larger interest was manifested throughout the proceedings. The sympathies of part of the audience are evidently with the defendants, for whenever a point was made for them in the testimony there was a hearty applause. O. M. Eakies, a deacon in the church, testified that in company with E. M. Wells he undertook to investigate the alleged attempt to poison Miss Murphy with candy. Getting from Miss Murphy the name of a little girl who was said to have received the box of candy, they went to see her and she denied having received any box at all for Miss Murphy at the school-house. At the meeting of deacons and others, at Capt. Hanna's office, Dr. Murphy stated that his daughter had had trouble of some kind with a "venom" at Carrollton, Mo., that after going to school in Kansas City she was sick for some time at home, being waited on by a negro woman. Witness refused to go into full particulars, but said Mr. Murphy gave the name of the physician, and afterwards said he had heard from his friends North, and thought it necessary to have an investigation. Mr. Wells testified substantially like Mr. Eakies, with the addition of the particulars of the analysis of the powder on the candy and said it was arsenic.

Cora Mitchell, the little girl named as having received the box of candy at the school door the day she had not received it, but that she had stated she had by request of Miss Murphy. She also testified to having been approached by detective Thomas who told her if Miss Murphy offered her $1,000 to say she had received a box he would give her as much more. She said Miss Murphy had offered her $1,000 to say she had received a smaller box before she went to East Texas in December. She thought it was envelopes.

Mrs. Mitchell corroborated her daughter's story. George H. Dashwood testified he came to Fort Worth on the night of the 22d of January, the day Miss Murphy is said to have received the box of poisoned candy, and Eaton was with him until 11 o'clock. He testified that Eaton was not a gambler, though he sometimes played faro and high-ball poker.

S. M. Farman, the young man whose name was in the box received by Miss Murphy, testified that he had given his signature, acknowledged giving Geo. Eaton two letters given him in confidence by Miss Murphy; said he became doubtful of her innocence Christmas, but acknowledged the authorship of the letter written January 1, in which he claims to be her best friend, and intimates that he is a rejected lover.

C. A. Halley testified how publication was made of the poisoned candy business. The investigation continues to-morrow.

SECOND DAY.

FORT WORTH, TEX., March 6.—The church trial of the Murphy-Eaton affair was resumed at 1:30 to-day. Geo. Eaton's mother, Mrs. V. D. Eaton, testified that she was aware of the engagement of her son and Miss Murphy; Miss Murphy told her last June she would marry George unless he changed his mind; had seen letters from her son to Miss Murphy, shown by Dr. Murphy, breaking the engagement and intimating something about $500. When her son was sick Miss Murphy came several times to see him; had kissed her son in bed when he was supposed to be dying. Otis Eaton, brother of Geo. Eaton, testified: "Miss Murphy came to see brother when on his supposed death; promised to wear mourning and never to marry after his death." Mary Wellington, nurse, testified to carrying letters between the parties at the time Miss Murphy denies intimacy with Eaton.

Geo. Center, a negro boy, said he carried numerous notes between the parties at the disputed time. Jan. A. Topp testified to seeing the parties out driving; read in Eaton's hand a letter from Miss Murphy.

Chas. F. Hall, druggist, said he knew of notes passing between Miss Murphy and Eaton; some had been left at his store.

All this evidence here against Miss Murphy's reputation has not intimate with Eaton in December.

At the night session R. L. Tarver, G. W. Wear, Mrs. Furman, and Henry Furman were introduced to show the intimacy of the parties the latter part of December. The next witness will be Eaton. After his testimony the case will be closed.

A dramatic scene here occurred. While cross-examining reference to her life at Hagdon college, Mr. Furman asked if she was not charged with forgery of notes there. Mr. Ball of her counsel interposed, and asked if they were going to attempt proof of that kind; if not, it was a most cowardly practice, even used before a tribunal.

Furman said he did not know whether they would or not. Ball demanded if they had a scrap of paper even to show they should produce it.

Furman said a man from Missouri had told J. S. Davis of this city about it. Davis was called for and asked who it was. He named W. W. Woodson. "Is Mr. Woodson in the house?" was called next. From out of the midst of 500 people arose the bulky form of Woodson as he responded, "I am."

"Come forward and speak," called Ball. "I have nothing to say. Mr. Davis is mistaken," was the reply.

General clapping of hands and stamping ensued. Miss Murphy was led almost fainting out of the room, and Furman withdrew the question and apologized.

To-night Miss Murphy testified that she had never been engaged to Eaton, but had been followed up, dogged, threatened and abused by Eaton; got money from him on two occasions, explaining the money promptly. She denied most of the correspondence and explained that in the celebrated "Palo Pinto" envelope was sent a bill for his niece's tuition and not a demand for $500; that she did not take a buggy ride with him, but on that date was at school until dark with one of her pupils, a child of Mrs. Barlow; that he did take her mother's ride on a subsequent day. Thus explaining away the testimony of the other side, she left a good impression on the large crowd.

BY ANOTHER REPORTER. FORT WORTH, TEX., March 8.—The whole of to-day and until 12 o'clock to-night was occupied in the Eaton-Murphy trial. The defense put Miss Fannie Murphy on the stand, and she testified for six hours. She states positively and emphatically that she never received the money from Mr. Eaton he says he gave her; that she received the box of poisoned candy at school, as well as the note of warning not to say anything sent her. The prosecution to-day said they would prove trouble with a Chicago drummer at Carrollton, and that the witness was there. Being called he stated he knew absolutely nothing of the construction of the prosecuting attorney. Miss Murphy's testimony was very interesting. The lady is pronounced by many who heard her testimony to-night as the smartest woman in Texas, and if she maintains her story on cross-examination she will be entitled to the position. Rev. J. D. Murphy announced that he will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law and all persons who have printed or offered for sale pictures of his daughter. It was understood that several persons were about to engage in the industry.

LAST DAY. FORT WORTH, TEX., March 11.—To-night saw the close of the Eaton-Murphy trial which has lasted ten hours daily since last Wednesday. To-day Miss Murphy showed very conclusively that she was at the school-house at the time she was said to have taken a buggy ride. That was a strong link in the chain making her author of the letters she disputed writing, and which if proven genuine would show her to be an adventurer.

To-night when argument was to be had, Mr. Furman, Eaton's counsel, said that the object of Eaton's asking an investigation was his own vindication from the charge of having sent the poisoned candy to her. The evidence did not connect him in any manner with it, and he thought he should show that Miss Murphy ever charged him with having sent the candy. Mr. Eaton therefore withdrew all charges.
